K. OF C. MEMORIAL DAY. Members of San Jose Council Mark the Graves of Departed Knights.

San Jose council, No. 14, Knights of Columbus, held memorial services on Sunday in honor of their dead brethren. The day was an ideal one for the services and there was an unusually large attendance, including a good representation from Norwich and other places.

The members assembled at the hall at 1.15 p. m., wearing dark clothes, white gloves, badges and carrying cases. The line was formed at 1.45 o'clock and marched to the church, where services were held at 2 o'clock. The memorial services were in St. Jo-seph's church, and then the graves of the deceased priests in the yard of the parochial residence were decorated The past grand knights of the counci performed this duty. The line then reformed and proceeded to St. Joseph's cemetery, headed by a platoon of police, members of the council and Wheeler's American band. Following the decoration of the graves of the deceased members in the ceme-tery, Rev. T. H. Sullivan, assistant paster of St. Joseph's church, deliv-ered the memorial address. The ad-dress, which was a very able one, deal-ing with the ideals of the organization, was delivered beneath the pines near the Sisters of Charity burial plot.

After the address the procession re-formed and the return march was made to the council's hall in the old armory on Center street, where re-freshments were served. A social hour followed.

- the newest thing in a food beverage, not only tastes better than most coffee, but is better for family health.

There's no coffee in

POSTUM

Children love it

(No danger from the coffee drug, caffeine)

and thrive upon it. INSTANT POSTUM > is made in the cup. Take a teaspoonful direct from tin; Stir in cup of hot water;

Add cream and sugar to taste, and-

"Quick as a wink" you have a delightful beverage.

Economy To Health and Purse

A 100-cup tin of Instant Postum costs 50 cts. at grocers. (1/2c. per cup)-
